Cabin Creek Timber Frames is ON the COVER Story

The custom timber frame home featured on Cabin Creek Timber Frames homepage was chosen as the 'cover' for:

Lowe's 'Log & Rustic Plans' book.

Design America™ Best-Selling Home Plans magazine is a quarterly magazine that focuses on a different style of plan in every issue. From Log and rustic style home to luxury house plans, this magazine takes "the best of the best" and showcases those homes in its pages. Other great features includes in-depth articles on decorating, home safety and design in each issue, an interview with the cover home designer, a special section of energy efficient styles and do-it-yourself project plans that complement the home styles featured..
